

Austin Wimberly

Objective

Hardworking student looking to work with a dedicated team or individual in order to continually improve personal professional, social, and learning skills and abilities in order to gain experience in and understand careers in Industrial and Systems Engineering.

Relevant Professional Experience

2014-2016 Brookdale Senior Living Brentwood, TN

Intern

- Supported the Central Office by scanning documents and attaching to patient accounts, entry of payroll information, and other various database maintenance activities.

Spring, 2017 Reily Foods Company Knoxville, TN

Temp / Class Project

- Led student group in working with mayonnaise production team in investigating volume variability and possible discrepancy in advertised and actual volume using many statistical methods & calculations and suggesting potential solutions to improve line capability.

Education

2015-Present University of Tennessee Knoxville, TN

Industrial Engineering Major

- Completed Course Hours - 81
- Current GPA - 3.18

Relevant Coursework

Industrial Engineering

- IE 300 – Quality Control / Management
- IE 301 – Deterministic Models
- IE 350 – Leadership in Industrial Engineering – Team Building
- All pre-requisites including Calculus (I-III), Engineering Fundamentals, etc.

Key Skills/Activities

- Experience working individually and cooperatively within a team
- Ability to work well under pressure
- Various software such as AutoCAD, Microsoft Office, Matlab, Minitab, Google Drive, etc.
- Member of Sigma Alpha Lambda leadership and honors organization
- Member of Knoxville chapter of Institute of Industrial & Systems Engineers (2016-Current)
- Community Service Chair of Kappa Tau chapter of fraternity Phi Gamma Delta (2018-Current)

